Camp Policy and Procedure

Drop off and pick up will take place in front of the studio, and we kindly request that parents/caregivers only enter the studios if absolutely necessary to limit group sizes. A teacher will be at the door to welcome campers and accompany them to their classroom.

Please make sure that your child arrives at the studio on time and is promptly picked up after camp ends.

We are a tree-nut and peanut-free facility to ensure the safety of campers with allergies.

We understand that campers may fall ill, but please note that there are no make-up days, credits, or prorated amounts for any days or weeks missed in your registered camps

SAFETY PRECAUTIONS IN THE PARKING LOT

As you approach our building, there is a blind spot that may pose a risk to our students and families. We kindly ask that all parents please slow down when driving in the parking lot to ensure the safety of everyone present.

Please ensure that an adult always accompanies any children in the parking lot.

DAILY ITEMS TO BRING:

Lunch, a snack for the morning and afternoon, and a water bottle.

Electronic devices are only allowed to be used during lunch and snack times.

All campers are required to wear closed-toe shoes and dress appropriately for messy art projects as the paints we use may stain clothing. We will be providing art smocks to protect your clothing, but we recommend wearing clothes that you don't mind getting a little dirty.

We ask that you label all personal items with your camper's name to avoid any confusion or mix-ups. Please note that we are not responsible for any lost or stolen items, so it's important to keep track of personal belongings.

For campers who are signed up for extended care, we recommend bringing books or electronic devices if they prefer some quiet time during those hours.

SPECIAL NEEDS

If there are any special considerations that you feel we need to be aware of regarding your child (medications, allergies, behavioral problems, illnesses, etc.), please let our teachers know as well as the office.
